Quietly Married.

Atty. Charles L. Williams and Mrs. Mary Roberts-Castle of Normal, were married at the home of the groom in the presence of several relatives and friends. Mrs. Roberts-Castle, who is thirteen years old son Edward Castle, has been keeping house for Mr. Williams for some time and probably made herself so efficient in that capacity that the groom thought to "cinch" her for a life partnership.

Canadian Trench Fighter Here.

Wilson Holmes, one of the brave young Canadian soldiers, who are quite famed for the manner in which they "go over the top" in "No Man's Land" was in the city enroute to Jenkins to visit his father who is a coal operator there. He has been on the front in France and has participated in much fighting returning home only six weeks ago.

Attended Meeting.

Mrs. Davis Meek attended the executive meeting of Conference officers at Huntington of the Woman's Missionary Society, M. E. Church South.

Mrs. Meek is superintendent of Literature of the annual conference society of this branch of Woman's work. A loss to this society is that of Mrs. G. W. Atkinson, the corresponding secretary of Huntington, who is leaving within the next few days for Florida, where she expects to make her future home. She will be much missed as her place will be hard to fill, from a standpoint of capability.

New Farm Agent.

W. C. Wilson of Pulaski county is the new farm agent, appointed for Boyd county. Mr. Wilson is said to be one of the finest agricultural agents in the State. He is to receive a salary of $2000 per year. His work is to open on March 15, and he will bring his family here. The State is responsible for one half the salary and the county the other.

Moved Into New Home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Akers are moving into their new home recently purchased from Mrs. W. C. Hogan on upper Oakland avenue.

Guest At Parsonage.
